Dustin Berger Memorial Library

Mission
The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Ames Dustin Berger Memorial Library will provide a place and resources for members and friends to explore the seven principles and six sources of our faith. It will provide an environment that is accessible, helpful, and multimedia in nature. The library committee will provide policies, structures, and assistance to live up to this mission statement.

Committee Structure and Responsibilities of Members
- The chair of the committee will see that the mission statement is implemented. The chair will also make sure that the Dustin Berger Memorial Library Endowment process is followed annually to move money from the endowment into the long term library account. The chair will prepare annual budget requests and annual reports with the help of the members. The chair will appoint and mentor a vice-chair to assume chair responsibilities after a few years.
- The vice-chair of the committee will support the chair in implementing the mission statement, learn how to lead the committee and will move into the chair role after a few years.
- The members of the committee will help the chair implement the mission statement.
- Members will also help with budget requests and annual reports.
